

Regina E. Coley, Restoration Coach, Author and Motivational Speaker, is the founder of MotivatHER Inc. ®, a life-enrichment consulting firm focusing on reinvention, restoration, strategic planning, leadership, and women's empowerment.

Drawing from the lessons learned as she sought to find her purpose, she authored the book Refined to be Triumphant: Enduring Life's Challenges to Gain the Highest Strength, and The Power of the Seed: Manifesting Your Dreams. She is also the founder of Leading Ladies of Legacy Inc. - a nonprofit organization providing leadership development training for girls and young women. Regina is the host of Wonderfully Made, an annual empowerment conference for girls held in Atlanta.

Regina is also founder of Permission to Drive®- The Ultimate Visionary Bootcamp, a six week training camp educating, equipping and empowering small business entrepreneurs to launch and sustain their visions.

Named one of Atlanta's 40 under 40 Leaders by the New Leaders Council, this graduate of Howard University uses her knowledge of Education and former experience as a teacher to guide, inspire, and train audiences to take back their lives and live full throttle. She also holds an MBA from American Intercontinental University in Project Management. She lives by the motto: "Failure isn't an option, it's a choice."
